Advancing Innovation

Cooperations between Startups, SMEs and Corporates

Are you a start-up looking for:

Are you an established business offering:

- New distribution channels?
- Accelerated market access?
- Access to strategic partners?
- R&D resources – e.g. for prototyping?
- Industrial expertise for operations – e.g. in logistics?

The matching-services puts start-up founders in contact with the right contact persons in corporates willing to cooperate.

aws builds on years of experience with many hundreds of start-ups. In-house experts for technology, IP and financing bolster up the strong network. Get in touch to see how we can support your quest for a cooperation partner that truly adds value. Taking trust seriously, we only forward non-public information with your explicit approval.

Who is the target group?

Start-ups and established businesses

What is promoted?

Finding a cooperation partner

Service Type

Matching-Service

Application

ongoing via E-Mail, industry-startup.net@aws.at

Criteria

For the matching-service, start-ups need to fulfil the following criteria:

- Innovative technologies, services or products
- Less than six years since market entry
- Need and willingness to cooperate
- All industries
- Selection based on your documents (business plan)

Start-ups are selected both on the criteria above and on the potential value added by participating in the programme.

Similarly, corporates have to show that they can add value in form of a cooperation rather than as mere clients or suppliers.

There is no legal claim on the indicated services.

Cost

Until further notice, the matching-service is free of charge. Please find further information and documents for application (in German) at www.aws.at and www.industry-startup.net.
